

The names of God are important because they reveal His character, His essence, and His even His will. Most of God's names are revealed in the Old Testament and speak to the nature of the coming Messiah who we know as Jesus.

1. El Elyon – The Most High or Strongest One (Isaiah 14:13-14)
2. El Roi – The God Who Sees (Genesis 16:13)
3. El Olam – The Everlasting God (Isaiah 40:28)
4. El Shaddai – The Almighty God (Genesis 17:1-20)
5. Jehovah –The Self-existent One-(from Exodus 3:14 –“ I AM WHO I AM”) The name Jehovah speaks to relationships between God and His people, and when used emphasizes God's hatred of sin, and love and care of sinners. These are some of the names that Compound with Jehovah:
 - a. Jehovah Jireh – The Lord will Provide. (Genesis 22:13-14)
 - b. Jehovah Maccaddeshcem – The Lord who Sanctifies you (Exodus 31:13)
